Dear Parents and Carers,

This week our Year 6 pupils had their Mock SATs, working hard and trying their best in test conditions. We also had a visit from Year 6 teachers from all our Trust schools – looking at some super work! Today, we have our Year 5 pupils out on a visit to Barley Hall in York, to support their Tudor Times topic. We hope they will have a great day! Next week we resume our open afternoons and we will be inviting our Y2 families and Y1 families (who were celebrating Eid on Thursday 11th April). PLEASE REPLY to the open afternoon invitation to ensure the books and children are prepared for your visit 😊 Thank you!

ARCHERY AFTER SCHOOL CLUB

Unfortunately there will be no Archery after school on Friday 26th April due to staff supporting the Year 5 visit. We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

POLLING STATION

Newham Bridge will have a Polling Station on site next week – Thursday 2nd May. Our gates will remain open for voters. Please could families who bike and scoot to school be vigilant when entering the school premises, as there may be additional vehicles using our car park.
