

Homework: Inverted commas

Rewrite the sentences again in your book and add the inverted commas (speech marks)

Example : “Today I am going to the zoo,” said Helen.

1. Have you seen my red coat? asked George.
2. Time to go to the beach! shouted mum from downstairs.
3. It is my birthday tomorrow! cheered Jill.
4. Lucy whispered, I’m going to tiptoe in this cave.
5. It’s too cold outside, Ben whined.
6. A cheetah is the fastest animal, explained Sam.
7. Carl asked, Can I borrow your pencil?

Challenge:

1. It’s upstairs, said Ella, near the bed.

Adjectives are words that describe the noun

A green dragon.

Write the sentence again and add an adjective or two to the noun words.

The green dragon was feeling sad.

1. The boat was on the sea.
2. The girl was playing at school.
3. The dog slept on the mat.
4. Some flowers were on a table.
5. The boy was kicking his ball.

Adjectives are words that describe the noun

A green dragon.

Write the sentence again and add an adjective or two to the noun words.

The green dragon was feeling sad.

6. The boat was on the sea.
7. The girl was playing at school.
8. The dog slept on the mat.
9. Some flowers were on a table.
10. The boy was kicking his ball.

