

Bethlehem Is Full

Bethlehem is full.
Bethlehem is full.
End of the day, nowhere to stay,
Bethlehem is full.
Knock, knock, knocking on doors.
Knock, knock, knocking on doors.
Innkeeper said there is no bed.
Knock, knock, knocking on doors.
(repeat)

Innkeeper 3

I've a stable bare.
You can sleep in there!

Mary & Joseph

End of the day,
it's there we stay!
No more knocking on doors!

All

No more knocking on doors!
No more knocking on doors!
End of the day, it's there they stay!
No more knocking on doors!
No more knocking on doors! (clap, clap)

In The Stable

In the stable lullaby sing
To this baby, he is a king!
Though he is little,
Sent from above,
He's so big-hearted,
Our King of love.
(repeat)

On That Night

On that night
The sky was filled with light!
All the stars were shining extra bright!
Angel voices filled the air,
Singing as they flew:
'Good (clap) news (clap):
Christ is born for you.
Good (clap) news (clap):
Christ is born for you.'

On that night

The sky was filled with light!
All the stars were shining extra bright!
Shepherds watching over sheep
Heard the angel say:
'Good (clap) news (clap):
Christ is born for you.
Good (clap) news (clap):
Christ is born for you.'

Once There Were Three Wise Men

Once there were three wise men
Watching the night-time sky.
Suddenly three wise men
Saw a star pass by!
So they jumped on the camel train,
Jumped on the camel train,
To find a king!

Then all the three wise men
Followed the shiny star.
They stopped at Bethlehem
Having travelled far.
They said: 'hey, hey, is that the place?
Hey, hey, is that the place
To find a king?'

They found a newborn child,
Laid in a stable bare.
They were amazed to see
Baby Jesus there.
They gave gifts to the baby boy,
Gifts to the baby boy.
They'd found a king!

© 2010 Starshine Music Ltd.

Download songs from  iTunes