

A LITTLE NATIVITY

by John & Ruth Kenward

Lyrics

A Little Nativity

Tell us a little nativity!
Tell us a story with a heart!
We want a little nativity!
Tell the story tonight!
(repeat)

Every year at Christmas
We hear the story told,
But somehow it never seems too old!

Tell us a little nativity!
Tell us a story with a heart!
We want a little nativity!
Tell the story tonight!

Mary, Mary, What A Surprise

All
Mary, Mary, what a surprise!
Don't believe it? Rub your eyes!
Mary, Mary, sit right down:
Listen to the angel.

Angel Gabriel
Mary, Mary, listen to me,
I have news to bring you see.
Mary, Mary, you will be
Mother to a baby.

All
Mary, Mary, what a surprise! ...(etc.)

Angels

Mary, Mary, don't be afraid.
God is with you every day.
Mary, Mary, your firstborn
You will call him Jesus.

All

Mary, Mary, what a surprise! ...(etc.)

Mary

I have heard the angel.

Such A Long Way

Such a long way, such a long way,
Heading for Bethlehem today.
Now the night is coming,
We need a place to stay.

Such a long way, such a long way,
Heading for Bethlehem today.
Donkey's getting hungry.
He needs to eat some hay.

Ee-ore! Are we nearly there?
Ee-ore! Are we nearly there?
Ee-ore! Hooves are getting sore!
Tell me are we nearly there?

(repeat from start)
